The genesis of mp3 concert class radio can be traced back to the early 2000s when internet streaming technology began to mature. Initially, online radio stations focused on curated music playlists, but as bandwidth increased and portable devices gained popularity, the scope expanded to include live concert broadcasts. The advent of MP3 compression, which allows high-quality audio in small file sizes, further enabled seamless streaming over standard internet connections. Over time, niche platforms emerged, focusing on class-specific content?such as jazz enthusiasts, classical
