How GNDU Amritsar Schedules the Viva Date

Understanding the process of scheduling the viva date at GNDU Amritsar involves familiarity with university procedures, administrative protocols, and student responsibilities. Here's a detailed breakdown:

- Submission of Thesis/Dissertation/Project Report

Before scheduling the viva, students must submit the finalized version of their thesis, dissertation, or project report to the respective department or research committee. This submission often triggers the formal process for arranging the viva.

- Internal and External Evaluation

- Internal Evaluation: The department's research supervisor and an internal examiner review the submitted work.

- External Evaluation: An external examiner, often from another recognized institution, is invited to evaluate the work and participate in the viva.

Once both evaluations are completed and approved, the process moves forward.

- Scheduling the Viva

- Notification to Students: The university or department announces the tentative viva dates, typically via official communication channels such as email, notice boards, or the university portal.

- Coordination with Examiners: The department liaises with external examiners to confirm their availability.

- Final Date Declaration: The final viva date is officially notified to the student and all relevant parties, usually with a specific time and venue.

- Factors Influencing the Viva Schedule

- Examiner availability

- Academic calendar constraints

- Administrative processing times

- Student readiness

The university strives to accommodate all parties while adhering to academic timelines.

Typical Timeline and Important Dates

While specific dates may vary each semester, the following timeline provides a general framework:

- Thesis Submission Deadline: Usually 2-3 months before the scheduled viva.

- Evaluation Period: 4-6 weeks for internal and external evaluations.

- Viva Notification: Usually 2 weeks before the scheduled date.

- Viva Conducted: As per the announced schedule.

- Result Declaration: Usually within a week after the viva.

Students should regularly consult official GNDU notifications and stay in touch with their department coordinators for updates.
