The 2015 Berlitz Cruise ratings reflected a shift toward ultra-luxury, personalized experiences, and destination immersion. Shipbuilders and cruise lines invested heavily in redesigning vessels to meet high standards of comfort and innovation. Some notable trends included:

- Enhanced onboard wellness facilities, such as spas, gyms, and yoga studios
- Introduction of new culinary concepts emphasizing local flavors
- Greater focus on environmental sustainability and eco-conscious cruising
- Expansion of itineraries to include less-visited ports and off-the-beaten-path destinations

These developments contributed to the high ratings and popularity of ships highlighted in the 2015 guide.

How to Choose the Best Cruise Ship Based on Berlitz Ratings

When selecting a cruise ship, consider the following factors, especially if using the Berlitz Cruise Guide as a reference:

Identify Your Priorities

- Are you seeking luxury or family-friendly activities?
- Do you prefer cultural experiences or relaxation?
- Is cuisine or entertainment more important?

Review the Ratings and Highlights

- Focus on ships with high overall scores (above 9/10)

- Pay attention to specific amenities and features that match your interests
- Read passenger reviews for insights into onboard atmosphere

Match Itinerary with Your Interests

- Choose routes that explore destinations you wish to visit
- Consider the length of the cruise and the ports of call

Plan According to Your Budget

- Recognize that higher-rated ships often come with a premium price
- Look for special offers or packages that include excursions and amenities
