The purpose of such a system is manifold: simplifying fare management, encouraging regional mobility, reducing reliance on private vehicles, and promoting sustainable transportation options. The dual-card configuration implies flexibility, allowing users to switch or combine different modes of transportation—be it buses, trains, or trams.

Historical Context and Evolution

Historically, the region around Verdun and Metz has been a strategic and cultural hub, with a rich history intertwined with military significance, especially during the World Wars. Transportation infrastructure evolved over decades, initially focusing on railways and later integrating bus networks and tram systems.
