1. What is a Contract?

A contract is a legally binding agreement between two or more parties that creates mutual obligations enforceable by law. It can be written, oral, or implied by conduct.

2. What Are the Essential Elements of a Valid Contract?

For a contract to be valid, the following elements must be present:

- Acceptance: The unequivocal agreement to the terms of the offer by the other party.
- Consideration: Something of value exchanged between the parties.
- Intention to Create Legal Relations: Both parties must intend the agreement to have legal consequences.
- Capacity: Parties must have the legal capacity to contract, meaning they are of sound mind, of age, and not disqualified by law.
- Legality: The subject matter must be lawful.

3. What Types of Contracts Are There?

Contracts can be classified based on their formation and purpose:

Express Contracts Parties explicitly state the terms, either orally or in writing. Implied Contracts Terms are inferred from conduct, circumstances, or the nature of the relationship. Unilateral Contracts One party makes a promise in exchange for the act of another. Bilateral Contracts Both parties exchange mutual promises.
