Among these, the art of noodle making found fertile ground, blending Tibetan, Chinese, and local flavors into a unique culinary tradition.

The Origins of Noodle Craftsmanship

The story of noodle making in Kalimpong dates back to the early 20th century when Tibetan traders and settlers established their communities in the region. Over time, local entrepreneurs adopted and adapted these techniques, creating a distinct style that combined Tibetan flavor profiles with local ingredients.

The earliest noodle makers were often family-run businesses passed down through generations. They used simple tools—rolling pins, knives, and their skilled hands—to produce noodles that became a staple in local households and markets.
